DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

Claim 1 recites "...tighteners (18, 24) both for the assembly and blockage of the nozzle-holder ramps (15) with respect to said at least one collector (13), and also of the nozzles (14) to said nozzle-holder ramps (15)..." The disclosure does not appear to teach tighteners that perform both functions. It appears that there are tighteners (18) that assemble the nozzle-holder ramps to the collectors, and other tighteners that assemble the nozzles to the nozzle-holder ramps. In other words, a tightener performs either function but not both functions.

Claims 1 recites "...both said blockages being effected with the interposition of washers (22, 27)." The specification does not appear to that the interposition of washers effects the blockages. Washers 22 is merely interposed between ramps 15, collectors 13 and tighteners 18. Washers 27 are interposed between nozzles 14, ramps 15 and thighteners 24. The washers 22, 27 do not appear to effect the blockages.

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors.

Claim 2 recites the limitation "the operating conditions" in lines 3-4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 3 recites "said at least one feeding collector (13) with said nozzle-holder ramps (15) comprises a series of side openings (23)." It is uncertain whether the feeding collector, nozzle-holder ramps or both require side openings.

Claim 4 recites the limitation "the demands of the receiving plant complex" in lines 4-5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 6 recites the limitation "the physico-chemical characteristics of the circulating water" in lines 4-6. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 11 recites the limitation "the at least one side feeding hold" in line 4. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 12 recites the broad recitation "one end is destined for the use of blocking means," and the claim also recites "preferably with a hexagonal section" which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Claim 16 further limits the claimed invention to "a shaped blocking element" but its parent claim utilizes the transitional phrase "consisting of."

Above is an exemplary listing. Applicant is required to review and amend the claims to ensure full compliance with 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Art Unit: 3752

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-5, 7-11, 15, 16 (as best understood) are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hayman, Jr. et al. (4,914,339).

Hayman discloses a vaporization water distribution plant consisting:

at least one feeding collector 45;

nozzle-holder ramps 68, 70, 71;

nozzles 74, 75;

tighteners 65, 79;

washers 66, 82.
